THE HILLS HEALTH RANCH PRESIDENT RECOGNIZED

Patrick Corbett receives Presidents Award

Toronto—Patrick Corbett, President of The Hills Health Ranch in the Cariboo region of British Columbia has been recognized and honoured in Toronto at the recent Canadian Spa Industry Conference with the Presidents award, recognizing his outstanding contribution to the Canadian spa industry and the Leading Spas of Canada.

Donna Holtom, President of The Leading Spas of Canada & the Holtz Spa in Ottawa and Toronto, presented the award with Ken Fisher of Canadian Rockies Hot Springs, and together thanked Mr. Corbett for his tireless energy, enthusiasm, and hard work in promoting the Canadian spa industry while also dedicating himself towards a unified voice for the Canadian Spa Industry.

"It is an honour to have played a part in helping the Canadian spa industry achieve such greatness and worldwide recognition for excellence," said Corbett. "Canadians are outstanding spa workers because of our gentle, quiet, caring and nurturing attitude which when combined with our extra-ordinary powerful natural surroundings and environment makes Canada a global leader in delivering outstanding health and healing spa experiences" he added.

The Hills Health Ranch is celebrating its 25th year and was Canada's first health and fitness vacation resort when it opened in 1985.. The ranch offers 45 guest rooms, 2 dining rooms, 18 spa treatment and consultation rooms, large fitness facilities, the largest number of health professionals of any resort in Canada, extensive daily choices of fitness classes, summer hiking, horseback riding and winter skiing facilities on its 20,000 acres playground. The Canadian Wellness Center at The Hills Health Ranch also serves guests with 6-10 and 30 night Wellness Retreats including Smoking Cessation, Weight Loss, Fitness, Rehab, Anti-Aging, and more.
